

What Does The Dream Really Mean?

words & music by C.M.j.

How many times are you gonna pray?
On and on and on, we cry peace someday:

We've let so much time just pass on by;
Waiting for someone to change our lives.
Just how long before we overcome, and all join hands together as one?

What does the dream of King really mean,
If it never comes to pass, and we are not free at last?
Is heaven the only place we'll see,
A world of harmony?

I really wish we would be happy;
With the beauty of diversity.

Is it so hard to let freedom ring, and honor the dream of M.L.King?

What does the dream of King really mean,
If it never comes to pass, and we are not free at last?
Is heaven the only place we'll see,
A world of harmony?

He had a dream, that one day, we'll rise up and live; sit down.

(All of God's children gonna sit down together).

A black man walking hand in hand with a white man.

Jews and Gentiles sharing smiles.

Protestants and Catholics; (Oh how we're all gonna mix).

It doesn't matter what happens now;

I've been to the mountain top (yes I have);

I've seen the promise land.

I may not get there with you;

But I'm not worried about (any thing);

I'm not fearing any man.

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord.
